SIMPSON SENIOR SERVICES ELECTS BOARD OFFICERS AND MEMBERS
RHONDA KARP, ED. D. ELECTED CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Dr. Rhonda Karp has been elected Chair of the Board of Directors of Simpson Senior Services (SSS). She succeeds Jordan Kendall, CPA who will now become Immediate Past Chair.

Dr. Karp's distinguished career includes service to non-profits, academic institutions and health care organizations. She is recognized for her work in human resources, relationship building and organizational communications.

Karp believes strongly in collaboration and partnership. "Excellent non-profit organizations leverage their strengths and achieve their missions by joining together with other organizations to deliver needed services and quality outcomes," she says.

Kim Williams, SSS President and CEO commenting on Dr. Karp's election observed how her background uniquely suits her to chair the Board at this time. "The difficult economic climate, decreasing funding levels for state and federal programs coupled with the increased need for services, especially to people who are poor and at risk, has drawn increased attention to non-profits, including the senior services sector.
